This procedure is reviewed and updated annually to ensure that candidate absence from examinations at Twynham TGS is managed in accordance with current requirements and regulations and reflects centre practice.

References in this procedure to ICE and SC refer to the JCQ documents Instructions for conducting examinations and A guide to the special consideration process.

Purpose of the procedure

The purpose of this procedure is to confirm the arrangements for candidates who are absent from an examination at Twynham TGS.

An absent candidate may subsequently arrive once the exam is underway, becoming a late or very late arrival, at which point Twynham TGS reserves the right to exercise discretion whether to allow a candidate who arrives after the start of the examination to enter the examination room and sit the examination. (See Candidate Late Arrival Procedure)

Based upon the circumstances for the absence, and subject to the required conditions being met, an application for special consideration may also be made to the relevant awarding body.

1. Identifying and dealing with candidate absence

A candidate will be considered absent from an examination if:

- the candidate is not present on completion of the attendance register once candidates are seated and have started the examination (ICE 22.5)

Once a candidate is identified as absent from an examination, the following action will be taken:

- The candidate will be contacted immediately as to their whereabouts and as far as possible arrangements made to ensure their immediate arrival

If a candidate fails to sit an examination, the following action is taken:

- A confirmed candidate absence is clearly recorded on the attendance register which is sent to the examiner/marker
- The candidate absence is noted on the seating plan by crossing through the candidate details

2. Roles and Responsibilities

Overview

It is the responsibility of the following member(s) of staff to deal with candidate absence once it has been identified:

- Exams manager will check attendance in the main exam rooms and access arrangement rooms and with the support of reception and the Head of Year contact absentees.

It is the responsibility of the following member(s) of staff to deal with candidates who are persistently absent from examinations:

- The Head of Year will be informed of persistent absentees and will investigate if appropriate

The role of invigilators

Invigilators will:

- Be informed of the process for dealing with absent candidates through training
- Ensure that absent candidates are clearly indicated on the attendance register (ICE 22.4)

Additional responsibilities:

- will collate absent lists ready for the Exams Manager to collect before the examination starts

The role of candidates
Candidates will be:

- Re-charged any relevant entry fees for unauthorised absence from examinations

3. Special consideration

At Twynham TGS if a candidate is absent from a timetabled written examination for an acceptable reason, the candidate may be eligible for special consideration. This is where an adjustment may be made to the candidate's grade by the awarding body, providing the following conditions are met:

- The examination is in the candidate's terminal exam series (SC 4.2)
- The candidate has completed or will be able to complete the required percentage of the assessment to meet the minimum requirements for enhanced grading in cases of acceptable absence (SC 4.5)
- The application for special consideration can be supported by appropriate evidence signed by a member of the senior leadership team (SC 6)

It is the responsibility of the following member(s) of staff to deal with special consideration requests and applications: The Exams Manager
